Potentiometers, sensors and thick-film custom applications

Tarazona 26- November 2025

To whom it may concern

We have identified in the market counterfeit potentiometers including our official ACP Spain logo. You may not be aware of this and the purpose of this communication is to inform you about this disloyal behavior.

Aragonesa de Componentes Pasivos S.A. is the only legal owner of the ACP Spain logo, and no other company is authorized or licensed to use it.

We reserve the right to take legal actions to protect our brand name and market reputation. ACP quality should not be at risk by this kind of activities and we must act accordingly to protect our image and reputation.

In case you identify any source that offers these products, please report and note that we are not responsible for any quality or defects caused by malfunctions due to these fake components.

We appreciate your cooperation in stopping these unfair activities. We recommend purchasing ACP products through our authorized distributors.

Best regards

Tomás Prat
